

Making connections

Sticky knowledge

- *For Christians, the word God is important as the name of someone very important: the Creator of the universe and all that is in it.
- *No one has ever seen God but Christians believe he is behind all there is in the world; he is the Creator and giver of life.
- *A church is a Christian place of worship. Worship is about people showing how much God is worth to them
- *Working together with other Christians to serve the community is a big part of Christian faith.

Start here

Why is God important to Christians?
Who is responsible for caring for God's creation?

Making sense of the text.

Understanding the impact.

How (and where) do Christians show that God is important to them?
How do Christians show that they respect God's name?
How do Christians work with others to make the world as God would want it to be?

People, culture and communities
Know some similarities and differences between different religious and cultural communities in this country, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class.